Asalaam Alaikum,

I have not yet made my way through your site so I am minimum on what I shall be saying. You sent me the pictrs of Islamic Miracles which were absolutely amazing. I am not a religious person but InshaAllah am moving into this direction. Do you think that dreams have a meaning. I believe so but need more to read. If you can help me please. Thank you Allah Hafiz

Since recovering from an illness(I was diagnosed with Auto-immune Hepatitis),I very much thought about life and death and if I was to die then how would I present myself to my Lord?I started to question my religion, am i a muslim by chance(born in a muslim)or by choice?I decided to research into this Islam and Taweed and realized that I have much to learn in the way of Allah all Mighty in this life, so I may have a chance to spread the word to my future children(inshallah).I came across this website by chance!But thank Allah for his endless Mercy in helping me on the straight path of guidance and in becoming a muslim from the heart aswell my actions.I particularly found the prayers in Islam to be of great benefit to those who take the time and effort to make dikr of them, much appreciation goes to Dr Azam(may Allah reward him well)!I have managed to print these and always try to make the time to sit and recite them daily.I would very much like to see more of these kinds of duas and supplications with their narrations etc as they are invaluable to us in the benefit which they reap.Also as a member of the younger western generation, your website has provided me with a LOT of significant information and i can proudly say that i am a muslim by choice rather than chance!Many thanks for your work in the way of Allah and I pray that Allah may grant you a long life for righteous deeds(Inshallah).Thank You.

Assalamu Alai kum wa rahmatullah wa barakatuu. dear dr. azam may ALLAH reward you for spreading light into this world by all information given by you to us about our religion. I am myself a kurdish woman, brought up in Sweden. My parents have always been believers but never practised Islam. they told me about God Almighty and his prophet and that was it. As long as i can remember i have believed and have always turned to God in every situation....i really believe that a child knows hers or his creator but as she or he gets older with time (if becoming a disbeliever) gets led astray by satan himself. I have always been interested in dreams...mostly because i've dreamt incredible dreams...true dreams including seeing the prophet(pbuh) we where in amosque together and he put his hans over my shoulders. he was flying in the mosque. i remember waking up with so much love for him it hurt.i remember as i was of seven years of age i had recently learned my first ayat wich was al fa! teha, i dreamt of reciting it in front of a doll who\ s mouth were sewed together as i keep on reciting...unbelievable i was seven.....i taught the ayat by my self..when i read your writings on dreams i was really touched,moved and impressed. dear dr just a week ago i dreamt about a grave yard with 4 graves on it. it was dark in my dream and i was retiring to sleep in the grave yard...when i looked upon the 4 graves i became curious and went to look at the names of the stones but woke up before i could. i remember the stones being very close to each other and in a row.....they were very big....do u understand my dream? could you give me any interpretation please.....may Allah reward you with his blessings dr umar.....please keep on the good work cause ALLAH WILL TRULY GRANT YOU BLESSINGS IF YOU SPREAD THE LIGHT OF TRUTH.....AND SECONDLY what do you think about rashad khalifa? wa salam

I personally found this website very interesting one because of its Islamic content and its informative nature. I see a very sincere effort towards preaching Islam globally.

I would like to see daily mailing kind of a service from this website where people could subscribe to the mailing service and they can get daily mails. With this, I think people could be made more aware of Islam from the mails every day. The mails should be short and easily understandable.

I encourage you in your very sincere efforts.

Masha Allah your website is excellent.

As a journalist please educate muslims not to believe in every thing spread through media. Kindly request muslims to stop degrading muslims & themselves which creates inferiority complex, through your articles. Anything repeated several times becomes a reality, & that's what happening.

Dear Dr.Umar Azam,
Its great pleasure to see that you are trying to something for Islam, it is also a service. Its OK. But one thing I would like to make you understand that today the need of the every single muslim is to follow or to practice Islam in real life for that The Holy Quraan and the Hadis S.A.S. is there to guide. But no body can control the desires and feelings except who is behind to make (ISLAM)true path (the path of Success)to follow the successor in past ASAHAB RAJIALLAHU ANHUAJMAIN

I request you to kindly visit the palace in India, called (Bangiewali Masjlit in Hajrat Nizamuddin Area of New Delhi. It is the centre of whole world (MARKAZ) for DAWAA and Tableegh. Please I request you to visit once in your life but as early as possible. The air of life of every Muslim is to live life as per the instructions of ALL MIGHTY ALLAH and the way of Propohoem Mohammed S.A.S.

I wish you all the best for your air and goals.

Yours truely brother

Aleykum Selam Brother.ive been to your site a few times now. The site contains lots of usable information about İslam. i Speak 3 languages but my English is best. Reading about İslam and the translation of The Holy Quran gives me a better look and understanding of how a Muslim should and must be. May you be rewarded wıth all good in this life and the Hereafter INSA-ALLAH

Take care Wa-Asalam

Respected Sir, I liked your website very much and found it very interesting. I am inspired by this and hope to become a religious person like you. I was always interested in islam but I am not very religious, I am not able to do more than just offering the 5 prayers. I hope your work motivates me so that I may also become a good muslim. May Allah make you more successful and bless you for your good deeds and also help people like us to learn more about islam. I would be glad to know more about your work and i also want to learn how to interpret dreams. Thanking you well i must admit after looking at your site ,my eyes have being opened to a much bigger world, from your dreams section i realised that dreams can mean major things in life, i mostly liked the Qur'an audio section for that now i hardly listen to hip-hop etcc , added your site to favotites, just click on your site n relax my mind by listening to the surahs from the holy Qur'an. Also after searching threw your site i have gaind more insde infomation into life. many thanks to you for making this site , i am sure others will benifit from it greatly. Jazakallah Khairun

Dear DR Umar Azam:

As SALam alaikum.

I have always been interested very much in dreams, and believe in them. I was very much interested in the entire collection of yours, but I will be reading them one after another as to understand that much better.

What I didnt understand was a conclusion that u made:

Holy dreams are crucial to help a person through the vicissitudes of life on Earth. Amongst many functions, Holy dreams: * instil ambition in a person * encourage good deeds through their tidings of celestial reward * comfort a person when he/she is devastated by problems * make it clear that, at all times, the Inspiration of Allah Most High and the affection of the Prophet Muhammed [PBUH] are close by. In a worldly life that can change for the worse at any time, the reassurance of dreams is always comforting!

What did u mean by Holy dreams? Do u mean taht they are PURE dreams? coz there are some dreams that are like a seal in my heart and mind and I have no clue as to what they mean. But when I am down ..they just come to me or I don't know if I think of them, and they just make me feel better and stronger, though I don't know the interpretations but the picture that they have given me in my mind and the interpretation that I get with those things are comforting. Allah knows best what they are. So that was something I didnt understand what u meant by \"holy dreams\" and also one

THE FOLLOWING IS A CASE-STUDY OF SEVERAL OF MY OWN DREAMS WHICH HAVE TURNED OUT TO BE THE OPPOSITE OF 'MEANINGLESS' I.E. 'MEANINGFUL'

U have pointed out the dreams which appear to be having a meaning similar to the dreams, but I didnt understand the reason for writing as \"meaningless\".

I also had a look at dreams in islam- conclusion but fail to understand the number and what dreams you were talking about.. it says from number 1 to 212.. and has a huge list of terms for it.

EXAMPLE is below

DREAM NO. SIGNIFICANCE

1 Good deeds ~ Pleasure of Allah ~ His Reward (Sustenance—River of Milk— Beautiful Wife as Pure and Holy Companion—Blessed luxury which is eternal, also symbolised by pearl necklaces, earrings).

2 Belief in Hereafter ~- Praise of Allah ~- Pleasure of Allah~Beautiful Wife ~ Blessed Wedding and unfortunately I could not find any

5. \'"Kaajal\'" or mascara (not that of this world).

6. When the eyes are closed, there is darkness. This darkness vanished, and the vision came
I faled to get where did the term \'"kaajal come from\'"??

This site is really interesting for people who believe in dreams.
I hope and pray that I get the knowledge to find the meanings to mine!
Insha ALLah.

As you have asked for suggestions.. I would like to see the terminology for the common things and a meaning for it. from common examples like flying, cloth, or flowers, eating, or anything like that. general terms and their meanings . Thank You!
MAY ALLAH ALMIGHTY BLESS U ABUNDANTLY IN THIS LIFE AND IN THE AAKHIRAT.
Khuda Hafiz!
Ambereen

MashAllah, I just read some of your work on dreams, particularly political and dreams of career. MashAllah your work in those pages has good information. The presentation of the website could be improved, it looks a bit unprofessional, but I realized that once I started reading, I had to stop myself since a lot of info was interesting.

I think you should somewhere talk about relativity and how it is discussed in the Quran. Special Relativity by Einstein is one of the confusing topics but when I discovered how in the Quran it is mentioned about Universe contracting, and popular scientists stting that if Earth contracts then time will go back, then I realized how Allah SWT means that if time goes back then dead people will be Resurrected inshAllah.

I am myself trying to research further about reallivity. I just got to know this a few days ago.

JazakAllah Khairan for this wonderful site. MashAllah the knowledge of it is good, the presentation-however-is not.

Assalamualaikum.
I am very grateful to u sir for considering my request and i am very proud to be a part of ur concern.
This is an exciting site for those who r really eager towards the knowledge of islam & also beneficial to non-muslims who has wrong impression about the divine religion ISLAM. though i have not read the whole contents, but i can say one thing. It's an amazing and tremendous effort by u & ur companions in launching this website. I as a muslim think that it's time for us to know something about our own religion apart from wordly science & transactions. Though the world has revolutionised so much in the field of technology but it is still far behind the goal of humanity. & i think a knowledge of this kind as presented by u will help a lot in fulfilling this dream for in this present world there is destruction every where. I will try to grab as much knowledge as possible from ur site for this is just a beginning. INSHA ALLAH. May ALLAH'S grace always be upon u.

hope u will keep in touch with me.
Thank you.

Assalamu alaikum. This is my first time to visit the website after I was referred from Islam.com on my request concerning the miracles of Islam. I am interested so much in the sense that I'll be visiting the web for my religious research as I used to do in other Islamic webs. Furthermore I've something to forward for Qur'anic research. It is the Qur'anic prophesy concerning the internet itself. Since we have a Sura title "Ankabuut" ie Spider and there is a verse talking about the web in the Sura. Please if possible do research on it. Wassalamu alaikum.

Dear brother in Islam Dr.Umar Azam,

I need to say that Allah is indeed great. He has promised in the Holy Quran that He talks to whomever from His servants that He wants. Nobody has to object to that. Indeed one has to pray to Allah Ta'ala to know the truth of one's claim (in your case and that of your brother that you both are receiving true dreams and kashafs (visions) from Allah(SWT). I think one must read and learn from others also. It is really a great gift that you and your brother has received from Allah (swt). May Allah be to both your reward. The vision of paradise that your brother Zaheer Azam has received from Allah is very heart-melting because it is proof that Allah chooses from whomever from His servants to give him/her inspirations and revelations. By the Grace of Allah (swt), I know 2 persons whom Allah has raised up in this era. Allah has sent His Amir'oul Momeneen Muhyi-ud-Din (Reviver of All Faith) and his surname is Azim. Another person along with him, has been raised also as an Amir'oul Momeneen along with the Muhyi-ud-Din of this era to bring back the Ummat of our Beloved Nabi-e-Kareem Hazrat Muhammad (s.a.w.s) as one body and one soul. I have provided you with his jamaat's website:

www.jaam-international.org

(actually I have believed in him and forms part of his jamaat, a jamaat who have been divinely ordained to be formed).

I have read your dreams but not yet read the full contents on your website but I know from the little that I have read that they are gems to guide all mankind Insha-Allah towards the Unicity of Almighty Allah. My prayer is that you join hands with those whom Allah have chosen in this era so as to bring back the glory of Islam. Islam is the pure religion. All souls are to be submitted totally to Allah (swt) and love Him and His Beloved Prophet, Rahmatul lil Aalameen Beloved Hazrat Muhammad (s.a.w.s).

One must have Islam in their heart and soul and derive pleasure in the pleasure of Allah and His Rassool (s.a.w.s).

I have a website in which I have decided to post some poems divinely inspired.

Please visit: www.pearlofperfection.tk

May Allah help you. Allah blesses he who do not reject His signs come what may. May Allah always bless you and your family. My salaams also to your respected brother Zaheer Azam. I have read his visions and by the Grace of Allah, I have no doubt that Allah can show him the Garden of Bliss and its treasures for the ancient ahadeeths mentions that there will come a time (the time of the Promised Messiah)when women and young children will get revelations from Allah, and the state will be such that even common men will be able to prophesy (by Allah's will).

Please ask your brother if I can get the name of the Imaam will will marry Mr. & Mrs. X. (:)))) - Anyways I know that some visions and inspirations and revelations from Allah are secrets which Allah Almighty gives to whomever He wants and the fact that He has revealed plenty of beautiful messages to you and your brother, therefore I have no doubt that Allah loves you; for He talks to whomsoever He pleases and indeed He may have appreciated your hard work for the cause of Islam.

I pray that all differences between our muslims brothers and sisters may come to an end. The fact that we muslims have received the Holy Quran, the Holy Prophet Muhammad (s.a.w) and the Pure religion of Islam should have made us more conscient of our duty to Allah but unfortunately it is not so when you read and watch on T.V about the calamities that the muslims are going through. We all muslims should suffer together as one body and soul when one of us is hurt and feel happy when one of us is happy. Why must muslims brothers and sisters (and muslims countries) fight among themselves? Allah has provided us the Best in all things. We should be grateful towards Him and do His Zikr.

Thank you for your time to read my message,

Allah Hafiz,
Wassallaam alaikum warahmatullah wa baraaakatuhu,

Fi-Amaanallah,

Tayyeba S.

I find that the 'Miracles of Islam' very interesting as it helps the muslims who are in doubt in the world of Islam to really really believe that Islam is really the RIGHT religion to follow and that Allah really exist. As for the non-muslim people, they might thought of converting their religion into Islam & this 'Miracles of Islam' can help convince them that Islam is really the right religion to follow.

Dear Dr. Azam, Assalam-O-Alaikum
Thanks for this website and the Quran you have sent me through e-mail. I am a 45 years married Muslim male with two daughters from India. I have been married for 17 years. But, now this marriage is at the brink of divorce not due to me but due to irresponsible and selfish action of my wife. Let me explain you in detail.

I was married in 1989 with well educated (M. Sc. in Physics) Muslim women. I have two beautiful daughters aged 16 years (a Down syndrome child) and another 12 years.
Due to my elder daughter education and rehabilitation, we moved to USA in 2000 after working for 3 years in Bahrain. My wife was not very religious but used to pray in Ramadan and had Muslim faith. Our marriage was O.K. but not excellent. My wife had never been satisfied with life and what I used to earn. More the earning increased and uneasiness with life increased. After going to USA, she started moving away from Islam and I started moving more towards Islam and started observing strictly 5 times prayers and study of Quran. Tried to impart that knowledge to my younger daughter also. Last year, we got our Green Card in USA. Since March, 2005 my started working and from there the real problem started. I started observing change in her behavior and clear indication of moving away from Islam. She forcibly stopped my daughter's Quran classes. I kept on adjusting but this year something happened very badly.

I was in India during March-June. When I went back in June, she disclosed to me that she is no more interested in relationship with me any more as she has established relationship with her married Christian co-worker. This year that guy has divorced his wife due to intimacy with her and now they are planning to marry sometimes next year. I tried in vain for 2 ½ month explaining her everything and its consequences but as of today she has no plan for reconsideration. I left USA and now a day I am in India. The children are with her. She has just spoiled my younger daughter and has also turned her against me. She has also criticized Quran in the following way.

1. Quran is 1400 years old and can't be implemented in this modern world
2. I don't like so many things in Quran.
3. Islam is a ruthless religion because there is no place for emotion.
4. Who has seen what happens after you die. So why should I worry for those unseen now. I'll take care when I'll die. I'll enjoy my life here.

She has taught my daughter also "Do whatever you like". She wanted me to stay there and take care of the kids so that she can enjoy her illicit life, which I refused to do on moral ground. She has selfishly destroyed my family and separated my children from me. Following the Islam, I have informed her parents. She is about to visit India in Dec, 2006.

I would like to have your suggestion in this regard specially children. How should I save them? She is not ready to handover to me and also children would not like my life style. She has colored them in hers.

Please, advice from all points of view. I am not keeping well. I have Acid Reflux problem for the last 6 years.

I have not had a chance to extensively explore your website but it seems very interesting and informative hence i am not able to give my opinion at this time. I was however looking for the english translation of the quranic audio bytes. Is it possible you could incorporate this with the quranic recitals. It would be great if i could understand the quranic recitals.

Asalamu Alykum
I've learnt alot from your website. And i wish there was a facility in which people could also send in their dreams and get them translated.
Plus I've always wondered why some people seem to dream alot and some not at all. Is there any significance to this?
I would also grateful if i could have a dream translated for me

Kind regards,

I was very much happy this site an excellent effort for spreading the knowledge of Islam on the web available for every one. I want to see some article about The Jihad because now a days the jihad become very much poor. I also want to see the great names of Allah with beautiful collections.
Thank You

Assalamu-alaik,
honestly iam not only signing your guest book but rather iam trying to pass a comment on what i sent or asked from you the other day about dreams, though, iam not going to say that iam not happy with what you or how you answed my question, rather in your responce you said you 'think'. Please kindly emphasis on that.

Salam

I enjoyed your website. Allah(SWT) is the Most Great, and he has sent these amazing miracles to show all those who do not believe in him. But yet they still want more proof as to his existence. These should be enough to show all people who disbelieve in the oneness All Mighty Allah.

May Allah bless you and give you more knowledge.
